The Reuben F. Scarf Award for Commitment

Cooper Wielozynski

Reuben F. Scarf was a businessman, philanthropist and poet who was eminently successful in commerce. He believed that with hard work, common sense and a purpose, all goals were achievable. He thought that young people who are persistent and dedicated are the ones who ultimately reach their goals. This award aims to recognise and honour consistent effort and the desire to improve.

Cooper is a worthy recipient of the 2022 Reuben F. Scarf Award for commitment. Cooper is a dedicated and conscientious student who has demonstrated an outstanding work ethic throughout his schooling. He performed well in Year 11 and this dedication has continued into Year 12 with first position in Personal Development, Health & Physical Education. Cooper has applied himself consistently to all his subjects and constantly strived to improve his knowledge and skills. He has impressed staff with his level of commitment, work ethic and resilience. Cooper has demonstrated school pride every day and has upheld the school core values impeccably. He is a positive role model to his peers.

Cooper has shown exceptional commitment to his education at Broken Hill High School and therefore, is a worthy recipient of the Reuben F. Scarf Award for Commitment.

Congratulations and good luck, Cooper.

Ampol Best All Rounder Award

Elle Joy Yamomo

The Ampol All Rounder Award recognises a student for their leadership qualities and commitment across a range of activities: in their studies, on the sports field and on behalf of others. This is the thirty seventh year of the Ampol All Rounder and it is known as one of Australia's most respected and best-known secondary education recognition programs.

Elle Joy is the definition of an all-rounder, academic or social, Elle Joy has showcased wonderful dedication to herself, her school and the wider community. She is an extremely dedicated student who has worked tirelessly to ensure she gave herself every chance of being successful in her HSC. Elle Joy achieved first position in English Standard and Visual Arts.

As School Prefect of Broken Hill High School, Elle Joy has diligently performed her duties, supported the school community and been a role model to her peers.

Elle Joy has demonstrated outstanding personal, academic and leadership qualities and is a worthy recipient of the Year 12 Ampol All Rounder Award for 2022.

Congratulations and good luck, Elle Joy.

Special Awards

REUBEN F. SCARF AWARD FOR COMMITMENT

The Reuben F. Scarf Award for commitment reflects the character and spirit of Reuben F. Scarf. Businessman, philanthropist and poet, he epitomised the practical and uncomplicated approach to life that great Australians are renowned.

He was an individual who, though not born into privilege, achieved success through hard work, common sense and dedication.

This award is specifically for an individual who demonstrates integrity, consistent effort and a regard for others.

CALTEX BEST ALLROUNDER

Recognising the Year 12 student who demonstrated a high degree of commitment to academic and sporting excellence, whose conduct and attitude were outstanding at all times, and who participated in school and community activities.

AUSTRALIAN OLYMPIC CHANGE-MAKER AWARD

The award recognises students for their demonstration of the Olympic spirit through leadership and driving positive change in their community.

CRAIG O'NEIL MEMORIAL AWARD

Craig O'Neil was a former student of Broken Hill High School during the 1980's. He was Dux of the School in 1988. Craig passed in 2009 and his family contacted the school in order to contribute an annual award to assist a talented musician from the Senior School to further their career.

The Craig O'Neil Memorial Award is awarded to a Senior Music student who is displaying innovation in their studies.

SIR RONALD NYHOLM MEMORIAL AWARD

Sir Ronald Sydney Nyholm (1917 – 1971) was a student at Broken Hill High School. He completed his Leaving Certificate in 1933, receiving the Dux Award. He won a Teacher's College Scholarship to the University of Sydney and graduated with first class-honours.

Sir Ronald Nyholm worked in many fields during his celebrated career based on his interest in Chemistry. His many honours included the Chemical Society's Corday-Morgan Medal, the H.G. Smith Medal of the Royal Australian Chemical Institute, the medal of the R.S.N.S.W, the gold medal of the Chimica Italiana and the 'Sigillum Magnum' medal of the University of Bologna. He received an honorary doctorate of Science from the U.N.S.W. He was knighted in 1967.

HAROLD & JESSIE BRENNAN AWARD

Harold Brennan taught accountancy at Broken Hill Technical College. He came to Broken Hill from Sydney in 1956 with his wife Jessie and their four sons David, Geoffrey, Michael and Warwick. David and Geoffrey completed their schooling at Broken Hill High School in 1958 and 1961 respectively; both were Captains and Dux of the school.

For Harold and Jessie, locating to Broken Hill was a pioneering challenge; apart from Harold's work at the technical college, they were active in Broken Hill Repertory, tennis and church activities. Both had a strong commitment to family and education. In honouring their parents' commitment to education, David and Geoffrey funded this prize.

ELIZABETH GRANT MEMORIAL AWARD

Elizabeth Grant was a student of the school who passed away due to illness. The Elizabeth Grant Memorial Prize is awarded to the student displaying Outstanding Achievement in Literacy in Year 9.

BILL STEVENSON MEMORIAL AWARD

Bill Stevenson was a former student of the school who passed away and his family instigated the award on his behalf. The Bill Stevenson Memorial Prize is awarded to the Most Outstanding Year 10 Literacy student.

THE WYNDHAM SCHEME AWARD

Recognising the Year 10 student who demonstrated a high degree of commitment to academic and sporting excellence, whose conduct and attitude were outstanding at all times, and who participated in school and community activities.

MAISIE INMAN (HINDE) JUNIOR ENGLISH AWARD

Maise Inman (Hinde) was a student at the school between 1926 – 1931. Her daughter Gillian Napper approached the school with the purpose of donating a prize to our Presentation Night Ceremony. She asked that the award be used to recognise the Junior Student who is showing outstanding achievement in poetry as her mother had a passion for literature.

ROBERT SCHOFIELD MEMORIAL AWARD

Mr Robert Schofield came to Broken Hill in 1988 as a Mathematics teacher. Robert was a committed teacher, dedicated sportsman and steadfast community member. Robert married Louise and their three children have all attended Broken Hill High School.

This year would have marked Robert's thirty fourth year of teaching.

Robert was known for his all-round sporting talent and his commitment to his students. His sports reports at school assemblies were extremely entertaining and memorable.

The Robert Schofield Memorial Award is awarded to a Year 12 student for Consistent Effort across all subjects and is sponsored by the Broken Hill High School Community.

DIANE GRINTER MEMORIAL AWARD

Miss Diane Grinter was a former student of the school who returned as a Mathematics teacher. Diane was a member of staff from 1983 - 2006. She passed away in November 2009.

Diane was known for her wonderful compassion towards all students and has been honoured with a lovely memorial garden seat in the garden at the front of the school.

The Diane Grinter Memorial Award is awarded to a student for Commitment to Mathematics and is sponsored by the Broken Hill High School Community.

GEOFFREY LITHGOW MEMORIAL AWARD

Geoffrey Lithgow was a former teacher of Science at Broken Hill High School during the period 1969 – 1983. Geoffrey passed away after a long illness. The Geoffrey Lithgow Award is presented to the Most Outstanding Senior Biology student.

ROSS PHILLIPS MEMORIAL AWARD

Ross Phillips was an English-History teacher at Broken Hill High School who passed away in the early 1980's. A Memorial Prize was established in his honour and awarded to the Most Outstanding Year 12 student in either Ancient or Modern History.

KEITH COLLEY MEMORIAL AWARD

Keith Colley was a former student of the school who returned as a Careers Teacher progressing to the Head Teacher of Administration. He died of cancer whilst still a teacher of the school. He has a memorial plaque located near the Home Science block.

The Keith Colley Memorial Trophy is awarded to the Most Outstanding Computing student.
